Aesthetics

The beauty of nature's woodgrain maintains elegance with a smooth, fine grain texture.

Keeping the exquisite characteristics of the real wood core while being able to choose from a wealth of finishes tailor made for you. Madison Shutters create enduring elements throughout your home, complementing any colour pallet or interior.

Revel in the warmth of wood

Madison Shutters combine luxury and warmth.

The solid wood core of each shutter acts as a natural thermal insulator. The cellular structure of wood grain creates a barrier against cool air helping retain heat more effectively. The framed shutter further acts as a barrier to cool air entering a room when the shutter panels are closed.

White Madison shutters can further aid interior temperature control by reflecting heat in the summer months, keeping the interior cooler.
